Policies

VIP Software Technologies Inc. (the "Company") solicits tenders, quotations and proposals by means of the Company's web sites and/or one or more of the following web sites ONLY. The Company is not liable for the accuracy of information obtained through any other source. In no particular order:

- scriptlance.com
- rentacoder.com
- getafreelancer.com
- elance.com

The Company reserves the right to:

- solicit bids from preferred vendors
- reject all bids
- select any bid, not necessarily the lowest
- select more than one bid

The Company may engage the services of more than one vendor to mitigate risk, provide alternatives for evaluation, and/or qualify vendors. In this situation, vendors are pre-advised (described in the scope of work) of any early termination clause and rights to any unfinished work products.

The Company requires that all bids address:

- assumptions about the scope of work
- schedule risks
- copyright ownership/assignment
- software licenses
- creator royalties

Failure to attend a mandatory site meeting will result in the Company's rejection of your bid.
